PALEIGH, N. C., April 12.—The most notable of the thirteen cases that were decided yesterday by the State Supreme Court was that of State vs. Barrett from Union county, in which the constitutionnlity of the legislative act making it prima facle evidence of guilt of retailing for a citizen of Union county to have more than one quart of liquor in his possession. The Supreme Court sustains the act which is chapter 434, public laws of Justice Connor writes the opinion of the court and Justice Brown writes a dissenting opinion in which he declares a dissenting opinion in which he declares that the act is unconstitutional, and asserts that he will not assent to laying the judicial axe to the most valuable and sacred of all fundamental rights of civil liberty—the right of being adjudged by the court innoent unless the State offers evidence to prove the commission of crime.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12.—R. R.

Ray, secretary of the McAden Mills, at McAdensville, to-day positively identified the man giving his name as John Fisher, now under arrest at Wadesboro, as one of the men who robbed the safe in the mill office six weeks ago, securing over two thousand dollars and some valuable papers. Fisher was seen several times within a week prior to the robbery in Gaston county, near the mill. There is no change in the condition of O'Day, though his death is momentarily expected.

Fisher is too badly wounded to be moved yet. As the requisition papers have been arranged, the men. T. O'Day lives, will be taken to Lancister county for trial first, as soon as they are in condition to be moved. Pinkerton Detective Scheule, who, accompanied Mr. Ray, by his mothod of identification, is positive that the right men are in custody, as both the Heath Springs and McAdensville affairs.

BIG INCREASE IN

Returns of Production Through out Country During Last Month Very Remarkable.

(Special to The Times-Diapatch.)
NEW YORK, April 12.—This afternoon's returns of the country's fron production during March Were very remarkable. In so far as consumption of iron is a measure of tangible prosperity, the country's industrial activity would appear to have reached a muite jumprecedented height. reached a quite unprecedented height.

tons, comparing with January's 1,778,500, and with the previous high record in American production, the 1,713,600 tons of May, 1900. What this huge output means may be seen from the fact that our largest from production during any previous year has been the 18,009,000 tons of 1903.

In the three completed months of 1905, we have produced $,30,000; if other quarters were to duffillate the showing, output for the year would be 21,00,000; or March were to strike, an average it would be 24,00,000. Such figures must naturally be considered with receive; but they compare rather interestingly with the yearly iron output as hitely as 1898, which was 11,73,000 tons. The decrease in furnace stocks, which has been continuous since pignist of August, notwithstanding the increased output—is a pretty good inducation that the bisis of current iron consumption is sound. The fact is worth keeping in mind, when receded, in that year, the trace reaction and shrinkage of iron industry. But the large output of May, 1903, had been preceded by continuous increase in idle stocks of iron, which rose from 62,261 tons on November 1, of the preceding year, to 156,732 at the opening of April and to 597,901 at the end of 1903.

THEATRE TRUST AGREEMENT READ

Interesting Revelations in Suit of David Belasco Against Brooks.

GIVES LIST OF THEATRES

Outlines Methods of Boycott and Defines Terms for Pooling of Profits.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, April 12.—During the con finuance yesterday of the trial of the suit of David Belasco, the theatrical mannger, against Joseph Brooks, in connection with the production of "The Auctioneer," and involving the control of the principal theatres of the country by a dicate agreement" was offered in evidence. Its reading was one of the striking features of a trial replete with interesting incidents.

The parties to the agreement, which became effective August 31, 1901, and runs for five years, are shown to be Al Hayman, Charles Frohman, Marc Klaw and A. L. Erlanger, as parties of the first and A. L. Erlanger, as parties of the first part, and Samuel F. Nirdlinger and J. Fred Zimmerman, trading as Nixon & Zimmerman, parties of the second part. The preamble to the agreement recites that theatrical interests in all the larger cities had suffered as a result of the indiscriminate "booking" of attractions, necessitating some agreement between the interests, whereby long "jumps" would be avoided and tours so arranged that there would be no conflict of similar attractions in the same city.

Theatres Controlled.

Theatres Controlled.

The list of theatres announced as under control of the parties to the agreement, and which was to be supplemented by any theatres subsequently passing under control of any of the parties in the next five years is as follows:

Knickerbocker Theatre. New York;
Hollis Theatre, Boston; Colonial Theatre, Boston; Boston Museum, Boston;
Providence Opera House, Providence; Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia; Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia; Broad Street Theatre, Philadelphia; Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia; People's Theatre, Chicaso; Gorand Theatre, Washington; Al-vin Theatre, Chicano; Cludinia Theatre, St. Louis; Century Theatre, St. Louis; Power's Theatre, Chicaso; Illinois Theatre, Chicaso; Grand Southern Theatre, Chicaso; Grand Southern Theatre, Chicaso; Grand Southern Theatre, Chicaso; House, Indianapolis; Star Theatre, Buffalo; Princess Theatre; Toronto; Boyd's Theatre, Omaha; Broadway Theatre, Denver; Tabor Grand Opera House, Denver; Columbia Theatre, San Trancisco; Tulane Theatre, New Orleans.

Defining the Boycott.

"All of which," the agreement con inues, "shall be booked with attraction "All of which," the agreement continues, "shall be booked with attractions in conjunction with each other; that is to say, no attractions shall be booked in any of the said theatres or places of amusement (or in any which may be hereafter acquired as aforesaid) which will insist in playing an opposition theatre or place of amusement in any of the cities above named (or any which may hereafter come under this agreement), unless the party hereto having the theatre or place of amusement in said competition point shall give his or their consent in writing to permit said attraction to play in the opposition theatre or place of amusement."

An agreement to pool all profits is set out in the fourth clause of the instrument, and of the net profits it is stipulated Messrs. Hayman, Frohman, Klaw and Erlanger shall receive $\overline{x}$ per cent, from all the theatres enumerated. Nixon & Zimmerman in return are to turn over from $3 1-3 to 50 per cent, of the net profits of the theatres owned by them in Pittsburg, Philadelphia and Baltimore. Klaw and Erlanger are given control of all bookings, while Nixon and Zimmerman are designated as the holding representatives.

Wireless Warning Told Big Kaiser Wilhelm II. of Iceberg in Path.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, April 12.—Fresh from her docks in Bremerhaven, where she nad undergone a complete overhauling in prepartion for carrying her quota of the spring rush to Europe, the Kalser Wilhelm II., champion racer of the North German Lloyd Line, came into port yes-erday afternoon. Her grooming did not bring about any new speed records, and thereby hangs a tale-one which tells of a friendly warning sent by wireless from the eastward bound liner, and which told of a whole armada of bergs lying straight in the path of the westward speeding racer.

The message had come from the White Star liner Teutonic. It had the effect of halting the swift progress of the German steamship, for a fog came rolling by soon after it had been received, and, soon after it had been received, and, forewarned of ice, Captain Hogemann had the speed of his vessel reduced to little more than half the galt at which she had been splitting through the quiet seas.

The Teutonic, which was on the east-bound track, which is sixty miles south of the westbound, had reported nine bergs in her path. Then she signalled a report which she had received from the Cunarder Caronia, and which gave the intitude and longtude of forty bergs which that vessel had encountered on the course which the Kalser Wilhelm was then traveling. then traveling.
